Petersburg's Annual Christmas Parade is Planned

(Petersburg, Virginia) – November 2, 2016. Petersburg City Mayor Howard Myers announced today that the City is reviewing an application, from a nonprofit organization to conduct Petersburg's Annual Christmas Parade. "The Christmas Parade was never officially canceled. I look forward to enjoying the parade with the citizens of Petersburg as I do each year," said Myers. The city's Special Event Committee will meet on November 3, 2016 to ensure the permitting process and all logistical matters are confirmed. The parade is planned tentatively for Saturday, December 3, 2016.
